

Patterson Library Adult Programs

How To Avoid Foreclosure Wednesday, Jan 27 7 PM

Having trouble making your mortgage payment? Qualified non-profit experts from the Housing Action Council will provide answers and explain the latest tools to re-work a loan and avoid mortgage default.

Snow date February 10th @ 7 PM

Women's Wednesday Websites for Women Wednesday, Feb 3 7PM

Margaret Carey shows us how to use the Internet to help you with everyday life in this wonderful program. Featured websites cover a full range of topics including: weight control, shopping, life issues, recipes and so much more.

Computer Class Using the Internet Thursday, Feb 11 1 PM

Margaret Carey shows us the basics of using the Internet. Learn how to surf the web and search for websites by topic, do research, shop and so much more.

Golden Age of Television Saturday, Feb 27 1 PM

Author & TV Historian Professor Brian Rose presents this interesting lecture and Power Point presentation on why the "Golden Age" was such a fascinating time in TV history. Hear about the Quiz Show scandals, blacklisting and more. *

Great Swamp Wood Turtles Wednesday, March 10 7 PM

Join presenter Michael Musnick in this wonderful talk & video presentation of his on-going study and tracking of the North American Wood Turtle, a species native to our own Great Swamp. Learn about the difficulties these creatures face and what is being done to save them.

Computer Class E-mails: All you Need to Know Thursday, March 11 1 PM

Margaret Carey teaches you everything you need to know about e-mail. Learn how to set up an email account, forward mail, save mail, create folders, download pictures, send attachments and more.

To register visit us online at www.pattersonlibrary.org & click on Events calendar or call 845.878.6121 x 10. Free programs.

* Sponsored by the NY Council for the Humanities, a state-affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities." Free & open to the public